

ADVANCED SOLUTION FOR CONDENSATE TREATMENT

PSC Srl Engineering & Contracting is an Italian company with more than 30 years of presence on the international industrial market. Among its various specializations, the design and construction of industrial and process water treatment, such as condensate treatments, in the Power sector, combined cycle plants, coal power plants, and others.

Graver Technologies LLC is one of the World's leading producers of ion exchange resins and technologically advanced products for the most appropriate treatment of all types of condensate contamination. The European premise of the company is located in France and guarantees the immediate presence of technical assistance for the study and selection of the most suitable products.

Thanks to the contribution of high qualified personnel from both companies, PSC and Graver Collaborate on condensed treatment project of high technological value. In these projects, the targeted and optimized choice of the plant and the ion exchange resins engineered for specific services, allow to obtain product to specification with stable characteristics, simple and optimized management, low installation and operating costs. In addition to total compliance with customer specifications and standards.

On request, systems can be totally or partially automated and digitized.

The companies are able to ensure quick supplies and intervention times and efficient maintenance.

April 2021